Work Experience

2021 Junior Enterprise of IME

Web developer, coordinator and CEO

In addition to learning new programming languages and using new frameworks, I honed my teamwork and project management skills.

As a developer, I participated in eleven different website and app development projects.

Then, as coordinator, I managed the execution of similar projects, planned and carried out training in programming for the company's trainees.

Finally, as president, I am the legal representative of the company and in charge of structuring strategic planning and coordinating and guiding the execution of projects.

2023 Tutor Mundi

Full Stack Developer

I am part of the product team that, in addition to manage the support of the website and the application, develop new technologies to innovate in the field of education and facilitate access to education in the field of digital monitoring
